

Momo is a male Persian medium cat with orange fur who is cute, friendly, and mischievous. He likes to climb and explore new areas of the house and gets excited when he sees a cockroach, trying to catch it if he can.

Momi is a female Persian peaknose cat with white fur who is calm and shy. She prefers to nap underneath the bench and usually avoids cockroaches as she is a bit scared of them.

Momo and Momi are a couple who had a child that has passed away.

Momo was one year old when he met Momi, and he likes to eat wet cat food with fish or chicken flavors.

Momi prefers dry cat food with seafood flavors.

They are both friendly towards strangers, but Momi is usually cautious and shy, while Momo is curious and outgoing.